Internationally renowned jazz trumpeter SEAN JONES is the featured artist/educator for this year’s camp. He is a graduate of Rutgers University and played with the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra directed by Wynton Marsalis until 2010. A highly respected musician, he has recorded with Nancy Wilson, Marcus Miller, Joe Lovano and Gerald Wilson and toured with Herbie Hancock and Wayne Shorter. Mr. Jones taught at Duquesne U. and Berklee College of Music and is currently head of the jazz program at Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore. He is the director of the prestigious Carnegie Hall Youth Jazz Orchestra.

PAUL BRATCHER is Harrisburg native who attended Bishop McDevitt H. S. Paul then attended Messiah College, receiving a B.S. in Music Education. Paul went to Michigan State Univ. studying under world renowned bassist Rodney Whitaker, graduating with his M.M. in Jazz Studies. Paul has shared the stage with Diego Rivera, Etienne Charles, Jeff “Tain” Watts and Branford Marsalis. He has played on international tours to South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Canada, and Uruguay. He is on faculty at the Levine School of Music in Washington D.C. and Jazz Ensemble Director at Georgetown U.

TIM WARFIELD is a native of York PA who has built a major career in jazz. Warfield’s first recording, A Cool Blue, was selected as one of the top ten recordings of the year in a 1995 New York Times critic’s poll, as was his 1998 recording Gentle Warrior - proclaiming him “possibly the most powerful tenor saxophonist of his generation” He performed with Christian McBride’s group from ’94-’99 was a member of Nicholas Payton’s Quintet and currently is a member of Terrell Stafford’s Quintet. Tim teaches jazz at Messiah College and is currently head of the Jazz Masters Program at Temple University.

KIRK REESE has been an active part of the jazz scene in Pennsylvania for over thirty years. He has performed with notable jazz artists - Phil Woods, Lou Marini, Marvin Stamm, and Terrell Stafford. An active recording artist, he has appeared on any CDs including the 2002 Grammy nominated “Blue Etude” by the Reese Project. A member of the music faculty at Messiah College for over 10 years, he has established a culture of small-group jazz that has reinforced the big bands, and has been the catalyst for many students developing a lifelong appreciation for the art form. His latest recording - Second Course - with Jeff Stabley & Steve Meashey was released in 2017.

JEFF STABLEY teaches Jazz Studies at York College of Pennsylvania where he directs the jazz ensemble and the percussion ensemble. For more than ten years, Stabley has been the music director of the First Presbyterian Church of York’s popular jazz vespers concerts honoring the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Locally Jeff can be heard drumming with Kirk Reese, Tim Warfield, Jr., and Jim Wood. He also plays keyboard with the hip-hop jazz group Compound. The Jeff Stabley Trio has released a CD entitled “Music To Listen to Music To” with Steve Meashey & Andy Roberts.

CATHY CHEMI is currently on faculty at Kutztown University. She toured and recorded with the legendary trumpeter Harry James and is one of the greatest vocal interpreters of the American Songbook. Her career included time in Las Vegas sharing the stage with Red Buttons and Earl “Fatha” Hines among many others. She recorded a CD, “You & I”, with pianist Steve Rudolph in 2000 and sings with the River City Big Band.

GAVIN HORNING is from Elizabethtown, PA and graduated from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh in 2018 where he studied with guitar masters Joe Negri, Eric Seusoff & Kenny Karsh. He is currently studying under full scholarship for his Masters Degree at Peabody Institute and performing in many area venues.

All performances are held in the beautiful Parmer Hall in the High Center at Messiah College.
Central PA Jazz Camp
Produced by the Central PA Friends of Jazz

Since the Camp’s inception in 2001, CPFJ has collaborated with area College music departments to carry out a three day resident/commuter summer camp for students aged 10 to 21. This year’s Camp is a FOUR DAY CAMP & features a major JAZZ CONCERT on Friday evening with Sean Jones.

The Camp serves music students of all instruments and voices and is taught by the finest professional jazz musicians/educators and administered by Dr. William Stowman of Messiah College.

Students who seriously desire to further their music education and, in particular, learn about jazz improvisation, are all welcome. There is no audition requirement.

For registration and other information please call Messiah College’s Department of Music - 717-796-1800, ext. 3030 or CPFJ at 717-540-1010.

Accommodations

Resident participants will stay in Messiah College residence halls and eat their meals at the College’s dining hall. Commuters may also eat in the dining hall. See registration panel for pricing details.

This year’s Camp is made possible by a generous grant from the Olewine Family Trust with scholarships from the Hall Foundation, The Kline Foundation and private donors.
